

WORLD WAR I MEMORIAL IN OAK PARK, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Transcribed, 1989, by Thomas Bodett

This memorial is located in Scoville Park at Lake Street, Grove Avenue, Ontario Street and Oak Park Avenue in Oak Park, Illinois. This is a large stone monument with a stone sculpture of a woman in front with three bronze statues of soldiers in period dress. There are a number of bronze plates mounted on the lower parts of the monument containing the names of Oak Park and River Forest citizens who served in the armed forces during World War I.

On the front of the monument, in a corner of one of the bronze name plates on the far left, is the following inscription:

CAST BY AM. ART BRONZE FDY., JULES BEACHEM & SON, CHICAGO, 192(5 or 6).

Carved into the stone is the following inscription:

ERECTED BY THE CITIZENS OF OAK PARK AND RIVER FOREST, ILLINOIS, IN HONOR OF THE MEN OF THIS COMMUNITY WHO TOOK PART IN THE WORLD WAR, 1914 - 1918.

In the front part of the monument, the following names are cast into the metal plates:
